Please read the following information regarding our Terms & Conditions prior to placing your order.

All sales are final and cannot be cancelled at the point of purchase.

Due to the special nature of our merchandise, we cannot accommodate exchanges or refunds under any circumstances. In addition, our vendors are unable to cancel or make any changes or modifications to any order once it has been placed. Please be sure of the style, size, color, and any other specifications before placing your order. Also, standardized dye lots cannot be guaranteed for orders with multiple gown styles.
